NEW YORK, July 13.—District Attorney Jerome to-day made an unsuccessful attempt to secure from the office of First Deputy Superintendent of Insurance Robert H, Hunter in this city, a copy of the detailed evidence on the affairs of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, taken before Superintendent of Insurance Francis Hendricks. This is the report which before Superintendent of Insurance Fran-cis Hendricks. This is the report which already has been printed, and of which Mr. Jerome yesterday said it was funny that he could not obtain a copy when a newspaper secured and printed it. Mr. Hunter refused to deliver it unless Mr. Jerome agreed to return it, but the latter said he would not agree to "return on de-mand to a subording is a copy of exidence mand to a subordinate a copy of evidence directed to be furnished by the Governor of the State of New York."

Y., July 13.—State Insurance Superintendent Erancis Hendricks to-day was asked as to why reference to the Depew Improvement Company and its exorbitant loan from the Equitation. ble Life Assurance Society was not con nined in the preliminary report of his investigation of the society's affairs. Mr. Hendricks said:
"That was ancient history. We had gone into that before. We told them (the society) to call the lean. We marked the valuation of the property down to valuation of the property down to them that if we made any change it would be less. They then foreclosed the mortgage on property, bidding it in for K0,000, and they have it yet."

Mr. Hendricks said Mr. Jerome had never asked for a copy of the Hendricka

NEW YORK, July 13.—James W. Alexander former president of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, is very III. He is undergoing treatment in a secluded place on Long Island, and it was said yesterday that he is in such a condition that all knowledge of the recent developments in the society have been kept from him. According to statements made, Mr. Alexander does not know that Paul Morton is at the head of the Equitable. Neither has he been informed of the Ryan purchase, at the head of the Equitable. Neither has he been informed of the Ryan purchase, and the installation of Messrs. Cleveland, O'Brien and Westinghouse as trustees. The fact of his own resignation and that of Mr. Hyde, it was declared, has not been made known to him. When asked yesterday whether he had received from United States Senator December resignation as a director of the

The report coming from Colonel J. M. Schoonmaker, of Pittsburg, vice-president of the Pittsburg and Lake Eric Raliroad, that the Vanderbilt system or the New York Central system had acquired the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, along with other smaller lines, was received in this city with great interest. The New York Central lines recently acquired the Bg-Four lines, a connection with the Chosapeake and Ohio, and superseded President Ingalls by making President Newman of the New York Central head of the Big-Four also. The New York Central, or Vanderbilt interests, already own one-third or something more of the stock of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, the other two-thirds being owned by the Pennsylvania Hailway and Virginia and Southern interests.

These facts lend some plausibility to the report, which however, is yet far from confirmed. President Stevens has in the appellate division, second department, at Brooklyn, took the witness stand this afternoon at the joint axecutive session called to investigate charges against him and spoke in high terms of his ability and fairness as a judge and his high personal character. Evin Wardman, editor of the New York Press, whose presence the Legislature has commanded, that he may answer regarding an article that appeared in that newspace hinting at corruption in connection with this trial, sent word to-day that he would appear before the joint session to-morrow.

WOMAN MURDERED NEAR GOLF CLUB GERMAN-SWEDISH

(By Associated Press.)

BELMONT, MASS., July 13.—The body of a woman was found this afternoon near the links of the Arlington Golf Club, near Belmont. Her throat had been cut, a deep, jagged wound having almost severed the head from the trunk, and as soon as the police authorities saw the body they declared that murder had been committed. The identity of the victim has not been learned The body was found behind a stone wall, and from the general appearance of the ground in the vicinity, it was judged that the body had been dragged there some time last night. The victim was about thirly years of age

Doctors Unable Yet to Say How Serious Are the In-

Central Telephone Exchange on Grace Street, met with a distressing and peculiar accident last night about 10:30. In company with two other operators, Misses Ford and Ridgeley, she was on a Broad Street car going to her home at No. 91 North Twenty-fifth Street, Just as the car had passed Twelfth Street, Miss Lloyd became alarmed at the nois caused by the burning out of the fuse; thinking that the car was beyond the motorman's control, she leaped out to motorman's control, sae leaped out to the right of the car, which was running at a considerable rate, and her head struck the cobblestones of Broad Street. She was immediately taken to the Pow-hatan Hotel and placed on a bed in a second story room. Dr. Mark W. Pey-ser and a surgeon of the Passenger and Power Company were summoned forth-with

They found that Miss Lloyd had sus tained no slight injuries—a deep gasi in the back part of her head, as wel as bruises and contusions; an arm badly wrenched, and a sovere concussion. Four stitches were taken by Dr. Peyser in the wound and local remedies were applied to the other injuries. Within possibly five minutes, Miss Lloyd, who had been rendered unconscious, was talking rationally to her mother, Mrs. A. S. Lloyd, who had been promptly summoned.

Miss Lloyd's two companion Misses as the car could be stopped they hastened at once to the side of Miss Lloyd. Half an hour after the accident Dr. Peyser stated that he could not determine so soon precisely the extent of the young lady's hurt. The cut is in a most serious part of the cerebrum, and whother or not the membrane has suffered harm remains to be seen. It is, indeed, remarkable for her that the contact with the hard in its results.

doubtful whether the skull is fractured.
She was unable to be taken home last

A Race for To-day Between Miss Chaffin and Lida Woodlands.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 13.—
On account of the storm which played havoe with the track and show grounds the second day of the Horse Show has been postponed until to-morrow morning. In the meanwhile a large force of labor wrs are being engaged in draining the track and ring, so that the exhibition and races will take place to-morrow, no matter what the weather conditions may be.

Enthusiasm regarding the show is so great that not a single exhibitor has has left the city, and to-morrow's event promises to excel those of the first day. There is an endeavor on foot to arrange a match steeplechase race between Mr. Chaffin's Miss Chaffin, a Richmond mare, and Mr. Charles H. Hurkamp's Lida Woodlands, a great local favorite.

Miss Chaffin won the harness ateeple-chase on yesterday and Lida Woodlands won out in the open steeplechase. It is more than probable that these two horses will meet to-morrow, when Mr. Robert Taylor, of Baltimore, will ride Lida and a professional will ride Miss Chaffin.

To-day, in the midst of a fierce storm, Mr. David Dunlop, of Petersburg, offered a handsome purse for a steeplechase to be run in the rain. Three horses eutered and gave a fair performance over the jumps. The strangest part of the event was there were no casualties.

Mr. H. C. Beattle, M. F. H. of Deep Run Hunt, has entered his fast sprinter, Zeiler, in a half mile race, which takes place to-morrow afternoon.

ST. PAUL, MINN., July 13.—Thomas W. Lawson gave a talk to a large audience at the People's Church to-night. Mr. Lawson declared that should his so-called remedy, which he did not make public, be put into effect, there would be a great financial revolution; there would be no more stock inflation; the money stolen from the people by the "system" would be returned to the people; and, because railroads and industrial corporations would have only to carn a fair percentage on the true value of their investments, the cost of living would be reduced and wage-carners would be able to enjoy greater luxures and to lay by a greater portion of their lawson, "Wall and to lay by a greater portion of their earnings.

"My friends," said Mr. Lawson, "Wall Street is nothing but a trick machine. Every year Rockofeller, Rogers, Morgan and others of their class run the American people through that machine from one end to the other, and, as they pass through, the money in their pockets falls into the 'system' bucket. What I propose to you is simply to reverse the operation; run the 'system' through the other way, and in that manner separate them from their ill-gotten gains and return their stolen millions to the rightful owners—the American people."

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BRISTCL, VA., July 18.-Governor Montague addressed an audience of nearly a thousand people, including many ladies in the Harmeling Opera House in Bristol to-night. The reception given the Governor amounted to an evation. Preceding the Governor's speech of nearly two hours in length, the military band discoursed stirring airs. Governor Montague was introduced to the audience by D. D. Hull. Jr. chief counsel for Virginia Iron, Coal and Coke Company, Turning somewhat from the common course, the Gove ernor made a strong appeal for support, and one calculated to make a lasting but it appeared that no poll tax had been assessed against him for seven years. Having moved from Danville to Richmond the assessor at either place had in some way falled to enumerate him for poll taxes, As soon as that matter came to his attention he promptly had it looked up and sattled.

For the benefit of these who would make capital of this, the Governor declared that he was no tax dodger, and that he did not ask nor want the support of any person who thought he was.

The Governor said that if elected to the Senate he would preserve his independence and serve the people, declining to wear any man's collar. He referred pointedly to the dangerous tendency of machine politics, and declared that whatever might be charged, he had not and would not tolerate machine methods to elevate himself, preferring the triumpla that is backed by the will of the people.
